

we also largely consume american news and would dearly love to hear and see real news, not the pabulum we are fed by the limited news outlets (print and tv) that are available now. Diversity should be encouraged, not killed off.